Beach House	Lazuli	Nach dem hochgelobten letzten Beach House Album "Teen Dream" aus dem Januar 2010 folgt im Mai 2012 das vierte Album des Duos bestehend aus Victoria Legrand und Alex Scally. Die klanglichen Ideen zu "Bloom" wurden größtenteils unterwegs entwickelt, zwischen den unzähligen Soundchecks und vielen Erfahrungen von zwei Jahren auf Tour. Eben jene Ideen wurden später in Baltimore, wo die Band lebt und arbeitet, zusammengetragen und weiter entwickelt. Die vielen Klangschichten auf "Bloom" sind akribisch konstruiert, um sicherzustellen, dass jeder Akkord und jede Melodie seine Rolle zu einem eindrucksvollen Ganzen zusammen führt. Victoria Legrand erklärt: "Bloom is a journey. For me, it is about the irreplaceable power of imagination as it relates to the intense experience of living. A bloom is only temporary... a fleeting vision of life in all of its intensity and colour, beautiful even if only for a moment." Anschließend wurde das Album Ende 2011 in den Sonic Ranch Studios in Tornillo, Texas aufgenommen sowie in den New Yorker Electric Lady Studios gemixt. Co-Produzent an der Seite der Band war Chris Coady (TV On The Radio, Yeah Yeah Yeahs, Blonde Redhead), der bereits an „Teen Dream“ mitarbeitete. Vor der Veröffentlichung des Albums legen Beach House eine blaue 7" Vinyl zum Record Store Day vor, die den Album Track "Lazuli" sowie eine brandneue B-Seite names "Equal Mind" enthalten wird!

FAUST/LIKE A STUNTMAN	s/t	Faust are one of the main protagonists of krautrock. When their first LP was released in 1971, their collage of Dadaism, avant-garde rock and free improvisation radically divided opinion. Whilst some lauded Faust as the best thing that ever happened to rock, others dismissed them as shameless dilettantes. After several split-ups, reunions and line-up changes, Faust today comprises the founder members Jean-Hervé Peron and Zappi Diermeier plus James Johnston (Gallon Drunk) and the British artist Geraldine Swayne. Their track on our exclusive 12-inch is a previously unreleased outtake from their most recent recording session. Like A Stuntman play eccentric, weird, harmonic, glitchy electro kraut pop like you have never heard before. Their first release on Bureau B ("Original Bedouin Culture", 2009) was highly acclaimed by the critics and classified as "krautrock for the post Radiohead generation" or "Germany's Animal Collective". The band had raised the bar to dizzying heights on this album – with the following "YOY" (2011) they have risen even higher. Especially for this vinyl edition, the Hamburg and Frankfurt based quartet recorded two brand new songs which prove their uniqueness once again.
FEHLFARBEN	Platz Da / Lang Genug	Als Vorbote zum am 18.5. erscheinenden Album „Xenophonie“ veröffentlicht die Kultband eine Vinyl-Single mit zwei Versionen, die nur auf diesem Format erhältlich sein werden. Die Single erscheint exklusiv zum Record Store Day und wird nur in einer streng limitierten Auflage auf weißem Vinyl verfügbar sein. Tracklisting: A Platz Da (Single Version) 2:58, B Lange Genug (Single Version) 3:11

Garbage	Battle In Me / Blood For Poppies	Vor kurzem enthüllten Garbage die erste Single "Blood For Poppies" aus ihrem im Mai erscheinenden fünften Studioalbum auf ihrer Bandwebsite www.garbage.com. "We decided to give the track to our fans first," so die Garbage Bandmitglieder, "We've always had the most amazingly loyal fans, and we wanted to show them just how much they mean to us by setting it free to them first." „Blood For Poppies“ ist die erste Single aus dem mit großer Spannung erwartetem Album „Not Your Kind Of People“, das am 11. Mai 2012 hierzulande über das bandeigene Label Stunvolume und Cooperative Music veröffentlicht wird. Bereits am 21. April wird die Band im Zuge des Record Store Day „Blood For Poppies“ in Form einer limitierten Auflage auf einer roten 7-inch Vinyl veröffentlichen, auf der neben dem Track auch der Song "Battle In Me" zu finden ist. Frontfrau Shirley Manson über die Single: "'Blood For Poppies' is meant to feel sort of like an abstract dream. The inspiration came from a story I had read in The Los Angeles Times about the opium trade and also from watching the documentary Restrepo. It's not literal in any sense whatsoever but it's a song about disorientation and delusion and the human struggle to stay sane in the face of insanity."

SCHNAUSS,ULRICH/PETER S,MARK/PYROLAT	s/t	The first collaboration between Ulrich Schnauss & Mark Peters, "Underrated Silence" has been one of Bureau B's most successful releases so far. Ulrich Schnauss (famous for his three solo albums as well as for his remix work) teamed up with Mark Peters (bass player, guitarist and singer of the British band Engineers) to create a bacchanalian instrumental combination of ambient, electronica and shoegaze sounds. "Balcony Sunset" is a track from this session that was not released on the album. Kurt "Pyrolator" Dahlke is one of the key figures in the late 70's to late 80's German music scene. He is the co-founder of the influential Ata Tak record label and has been a member of legendary bands such as D.A.F. and Fehlfarben. "Neuland" was his first solo album release in 24 years! The track "Sonnenaufgang 4:46 Uhr" is an outtake from sessions for that album. Tracklisting: Ulrich Schnauss & Mark Peters - Balcony Sunset 4:49, Pyrolator - Sonnenaufgang 4:46 Uhr 6:27
